MORE OF THE FUTURE GOD HAS FOR YOU (YOUNG ADULTS)

PASTOR DANIELLE ENGLEBERT

Thinking about the future can seem hard, far-off, scary and even...a waste of time. But you don't have to wait to start building the future you want because you are "young." Now screams louder but later lasts longer, and there is a way you can begin to live life now that will begin to shape your legacy and allow you to skip the regret later — a Jesus-centered way. In this breakout, we will discover practical steps and tips to MORE intentionality when it comes to laying the foundation and beginning to piece together the future God has for you!

MORE PEACE & FAITH IN PURSUING YOUR CALLING

PASTOR SHERRI BAIERL

A "calling" can seem clear one minute and foggy the next. We live in a world where success is defined in a way that makes moving in faith toward a "calling" seem unreasonable. Jesus puts hopes, dreams, visions, and goals in our hearts and doesn't intend for us to file them away when they may seem "unreasonable." In this breakout, we will explore how a responsible adult can begin to pursue their "calling."

MORE DEPTH IN YOUR FRIENDSHIPS

GINNY PIERCE

Do you have friends who you can trust with your struggles and worries? Women who will encourage you, pray with you and for you, and walk along side of you in your darkest time? Together we will look at God's design for friendship and how you can be a light to your friends in their darkest times. In this breakout, we will learn spiritual and practical ways to make meaningful, deep friendships that will last.

MORE FREEDOM FROM YOUR PAST

PASTOR BECKY ALCANTAR

Mistakes, disappointments, failures, loss - at some point in our lives we all find ourselves sorting through the aftermath of a mess. We have a choice either to live in the shame and shadow of them, or go back, face them, and move forward in the answers of the Bible to be free of them. The truth is that your past failures and even current imperfections do not disqualify you from the life God intended you to live. In this breakout, we will look at how we can break free from the destructive patterns of our pasts to live a life rooted in freedom.

MORE LASTING RESULTS IN YOUR PHYSICAL HEALTH

JILL TROIA

The reason for getting healthy in society today is often to reach a smaller number on the scale or to look good in our favorite pair of jeans. This is a never-ending cycle and will continue to leave us unfulfilled and overwhelmed if we don't change our focus. In this breakout, we will learn to focus on Jesus so that we can lean on Him to make healthy choices and see MORE lasting results in our physical health.

MORE HOPE IN THE SHADOWS OF ABUSE

DANA BLACK

Have you ever been abused by the one you loved that was supposed to love you? Have you ever felt like you were alone? Like you were trapped in your own home? You are not alone. In this breakout, we will discuss how Jesus can bring light to the darkest of situations and peace to you during and after a life storm.

MORE EXCITEMENT IN THE LATTER HALF OF YOUR JESUS JOURNEY

SUE PASOWICZ

Have you ever felt like you've done your time? I have. I raised three kids, cooked the meals, cleaned the house, washed the clothes, ran the carpool and volunteered everywhere. Now it's "me time." Or is it? In this breakout, we'll hear what God has to say about running this race called life and MORE.

Whether a career, dating, or your heart's desires for the future, you can walk a path that doesn't include feeling like there's no better options for you. In this breakout, we will discover how to avoid the pitfall of settling for something that isn't part of God's plan.

LESS "I CAN'T..."

PASTOR SHERRI BAIERL

We all have ideas...sometimes hundreds of ideas a day. Sometimes those ideas look like big, audacious, challenging goals, and sometimes they are simpler, like making a new recipe. Many times, we simply talk ourselves out of trying something new or moving in a new direction. Most of the time we counter our ideas with a quiet "I can't..." because we think we need more time, money, and connections. In this breakout, we will reflect upon the questions; what will I regret not doing at the end of my life and What would happen if I began to lean into my big ideas and goals?

LESS CLUTTER IN YOUR HOUSE & HEAD (NEW MOMS)

In this breakout, we will learn new and creative ways to de-clutter your life and prioritize your relationship with your family and with Jesus!

Although it's not easy, it is possible through trusting in Him. In this breakout, we will look at ways to cope and trust in Jesus when hope and peace seems far from reach.
